

ConvergenceCoaching, LLC Leadership Workshop

Omaha, NE © June 12, 2009

Our Leadership Workshop is designed to enhance the self-awareness, focus, leadership, and group management skills that your current and up-and-coming leaders need to achieve success.

When your firm's partners, managers, or firm administrators attend this event, they will learn tangible methods to enhance their leadership skills. Maximize the cultural and behavioral impacts of this program in your practice by sending as many of your supervisors, managers, and partners as possible to allow for reinforcement of the skills and tools learned during the workshop and ensure top-down support for building your firm's leadership and accountability skills. We will discuss:

- © Understanding leadership behaviors and attributes of effective leaders
- © Creating a culture of accountability and organizing a team of leaders
- © Managing difficult conversations by studying conflict styles and using a conflict management methodology to collaborate win-win solutions

In addition to group discussion, attendees will participate in a number of exercises designed to reinforce learning and will receive a valuable manual that includes course materials and all the exercises, tools, and other resources for their use when returning to the office. Participants will also form relationships with other professionals seeking to enhance their performance via the networking and information exchange that occurs during this program.

When you register prior to May 15, 2009, your registration fee is only $300. After that date, registration fees increase to $350 per person. The fee includes parking at the Hilton Omaha, continental breakfast and lunch, and materials. Hotel and travel costs are the responsibility of each participant.
